Computerized screening of substance abuse problems in a primary care setting: older vs. younger adults [1]

Description: This study examined the responses of older adults to the Drug Abuse Problem Assessment for Primary Care (DAPA-PC), a computerized drug and alcohol abuse screening instrument developed for primary care settings.

Source: American Journal of Drug and Alcohol Abuse

Topics: Screening and diagnosis [3]
Special populations [4]
Resource Type: Journal abstract [5]
Physician stage in practice: Becoming waivered [6]
Experience prescriber [7]
Just became waivered [8]
Setting up a practice [9]
Tags: Addiction [10]
Dependence [11]
Elderly patients [12]
Screening [13]
Special populations [14]
Commonly Used Forms: Medical assessment/first visit [15]

Links:
Computerized screening of substance abuse problems in a primary care setting: older vs. younger adults