HIPAA and Patient Care: The Role for Professional Judgment

Description: Analyzes the misconceptions that arise from the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act and discusses when health care providers should use their professional judgment in deciding whether a disclosure is necessary.

Topics: Logistics of buprenorphine treatment
Rules, regulations and recordkeeping
Resource Type: Journal abstract
Tags: Confidentiality
Consent
HIPAA
Legal matters
Recordkeeping
Physician stage in practice: Experienced prescriber
Just became waivered
Setting up a practice

Links:
[1] https://www.buppractice.com/node/250